

THE EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY BILLS

There are Two Pending Before House Courts Committee.

THE HEARING TO-MORROW NIGHT

Mr. McRae Patron of One Measure and Capt. Parks Patron of the Other—Mr. Glasgow and Mr. Thom to Oppose Both Acts.

The House Committee on Roads will meet to-morrow night to further consider proposed legislation to define the liability of employers for death or injury of employees.

There are two bills pending. Hon. W. P. McRae, the chairman of the committee, is the patron of one and Captain R. S. Parks of the other. Mr. W. A. Glasgow, Jr., and Mr. A. P. Thom will be present to oppose both bills and Mr. C. V. Meredith will probably be on hand to advocate legislation on this subject.

Efforts have been made at the last two sessions of the Legislature to pass bills similar to these, but the scheme has been defeated each time.

THE MRAE BILL.

Following is a copy of the McRae bill: A bill to define and prescribe the liability of railroad corporations to their servants or employees for injuries received by said servants or employees in the service or business of said corporations.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That when a personal injury is received by a servant or employee in the service or business of a railroad corporation, the said railroad corporation hereinafter termed the master or employer is liable to answer any damages to such servant or employee as if he were a stranger and not connected in any way with the service of the master.

2. Where the injury is caused by reason of any defect in the condition of the ways, works, machinery or plant connected with or used in the business of the employer, which arose from or had not been discovered or remedied, owing to the negligence of the master or employer or of some person in the service of the master or employer and entrusted by him with the duty of seeing that the ways, works, machinery or plant were in proper condition.

3. When the injury is caused by reason of any negligence of any person in the service or employment of the master or employer, who has any supervisory control or authority over him in the exercise of such supervision.

4. When such injury is caused by reason of the act or omission of any person in the service of the master or employer, who has charge or control of any signals, locomotive, engine, switch, car or train upon a railroad or any part of the track of a railroad.

5. But the master or employer is not liable under this act, if the servant or employee knew the defect or negligence causing the injury and failed in a reasonable time to give information thereof to the master or employer or to some person superior to himself, connected in the service or employment of the master or employer.

6. If such injury results in the death of the servant or employee, his personal representative is entitled to maintain an action therefor, as provided by section 2905, of the Code of Virginia. The damages in such case shall not exceed ten thousand dollars and may be distributed as provided in said section, by the direction of the jury.

7. This act shall be in force from its passage.

THE PARKS BILL.

Following is a copy of the Parks bill: A bill imposing upon railroad corporations, and any receiver, trustee, lessee, mortgagee, or other persons operating a railroad in the State of Virginia, liability for damages or injuries sustained by any person, including employees of such corporations, in consequence of the negligence, carelessness, incompetency or willful wrong of any officer, agent, conductor, engineer or other employee of such corporation, receiver, trustee, lessee, mortgagee or other person.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That every corporation operating a railroad in this State, whether such corporation be created under the laws of this State, or otherwise, shall be liable for all damages or injuries sustained by any person, including employees of such corporation, in consequence of the negligence, carelessness, incompetency or willful wrong of any officer, agent, conductor, engineer or other employee of such corporation, receiver, trustee, lessee, mortgagee or other person.

2. The liability of the corporation shall be limited to the amount of the assets of the corporation at the time of the injury, and shall not exceed the amount of the assets of the corporation at the time of the injury.
